This matter came on for a hearing on December 16, 2008, for a change of plea hearing. The matter was heard before United States Magistrate Judge Michael R. Merz. Having conducted a full plea colloquy with the defendant, the Magistrate Judge concluded that the Defendants plea of guilty was knowing, intelligent, and voluntary, and that there is an adequate factual basis for a finding of guilt.

The Court, noting that no objections have been filed thereto, and that the time for filing such objections expired on January 6, 2009, hereby ADOPTS said Report and Recommendations.

Therefore, based upon the aforesaid, and this Courts de novo review of the comprehensive findings by the United States Magistrate Judge this Court adopts the Report and Recommendations of the United States Magistrate Judge (Doc. #125) in its entirety, finding that the plea was knowing, intelligent and voluntary. The Defendant is FOUND guilty of the offenses for which he pled. This matter is ORDERED referred to the United States Probation Department for a presentence investigation and report. Sentencing is scheduled for March 20, 2009, at 10:00 a.m.
